

ADAPTIVE SCHOOLS SEMINAR

Zurich, 20-23 March

9:00 to 16:00 CHF 580

(INCLUDES COURSE MATERIALS, LUNCH AND REFRESHMENTS)

Productive teams are made, not born. There is growing research on the impact of collaborative adult professional cultures and student learning. New challenges require increasingly flexible approaches to how we work and interact with one another. The Adaptive Schools Foundation Seminar presents a productive, practical set of ideas and tools for developing collaborative groups who are better equipped to resolve complex student learning issues.

DAY 1

Entering the Territory

DAY 2

The Nuts and Bolts

DAY 3

Transforming Meetings

DAY 4

Sustaining Community

The goal is to develop the collective identity and capacity of organization members as collaborators, inquirers and leaders.

INCREASE CAPACITY

- to initiate, develop and sustain high functioning groups
- to diagnose when and how to engage groups in dialogue and discussion, exploring limitations, forms and values

DISCOVER

- an expanded repertoire of practical facilitation tools
- strategies for keeping group members on track, on topic, energized and resourceful

FIND OUT HOW

- to move groups beyond consensus to common focus
- to value and use dissension, argument and conflict
- to use new lenses to diagnose the stages and phases of group development

Inquiries: adaptiveschools@icsz.ch

REGISTER

Ochan Powell

Ochan Kusuma-Powell, EdD is a product of international schools and works as a consultant to support international teachers in the areas of inclusion, personalizing learning, emotional intelligence and organizational intelligence. With her husband, she has co-authored books in these areas contributing to the development of a culture of compassion within schools. Her current interest is in developing student metacognition and she has collaborated with ICS on this project.
powell@eduxfrontiers.org

Kendall Zoller

Kendall Zoller, EdD is an author, and global consultant / presenter. He has worked with schools throughout the world. Along the way he has delivered keynotes, workshops, leadership team development retreats, and leadership coaching sessions. His latest publications include the graphic novel, Calming Chaos, Leading through the Ecotone and Voices From the Ecotone. He also co-authored The Choreography of Presenting and has over 40 publications of articles and book chapters.
kvzollerci@gmail.com